GATHERING THOUGHT

"This couplet of parables introduces the teachings of Jesus regarding the nature of God, particularly God's nature to forgive and restore God's people. The parables repeat throughout what forgiveness is like in terms of things lost and things found. Jesus challenges the hearers to consider what it means to be community and what boundaries, if any, community has."

CCLI Song #7089641, CCLI#2254621

Before I spoke a word You were singing over me
You have been so so good to me
Before I took a breath You breathed Your life in me
You have been so so kind to me.

Refrain: *O the overwhelming never-ending reckless love of God
O it chases me down, fights 'til I'm found, leaves the ninety-nine
I couldn't earn it I don't deserve it, still You give Yourself away
O the overwhelming never-ending reckless love of God.*

When I was Your foe still Your love fought for me
You have been so so good to me
When I felt no worth You paid it all for me
You have been so so kind to me Refrain

There's no shadow You won't light up, mountain You won't climb up Coming after me
There's no wall You won't kick down, lie You won't tear down
Coming after me. (2x) Refrain

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

.... Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever, AMEN.

SHARING OUR GIFTS

Behold

arr. By T. Leonhardt

©2014TaylorLeonhardtMusic,CCL#2254621

The empty filled, the wounded healed,
The broken back together
The poor are blessed, the weary rest, we will dance forever

The blinded see, the chained are free, The doubtful now believer
The outcast known, the orphan home, You are my redeemer

Refrain: Behold! Behold! Behold what Love can do Behold! Behold! He's making all things new

The lost returned, the voiceless heard,
The mourner now rejoicing
The mountains shake the world awake,
Creation all composing
The sad untrue, the earth renewed,
The song has found its singer
The darkness light, the dead alive, You are my redeemer
(Refrain 2x)

You are making all things new (3x)

Behold! Behold! Behold what Love can do
Behold! Behold! He's making all things new
He's making all things new
He's making all things new

SCRIPTURE LESSON Luke 15:1-7 (Pew Bible pg. 850)

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, ‘This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.’ So he told them this parable: ‘Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.” Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.

Pastor: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

SERMON “Lost and Found” Don Lincoln

SONG OF RESPONSE Amazing Grace Luke 15
arr. J. Frost

Amazing grace how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost but now am found was blind but now I see.

‘Twas grace that taught my heart to fear and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come.
'Tis grace that brought me safe thus far
and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we'd first begun

We've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we'd first begun

PASTOR'S CORNER

Since we often quote Steve Garnaas-Holmes, I thought I would share one of his recent devotionals – from January 7, leading up to “Baptism of the Lord” Sunday last week:

Dearly Beloved,

Grace and Peace to you.

“You are my Child, the Beloved;
with you I am well pleased.” — Luke 3.22

A mother holds her newborn child, gotten by pain and labor, helpless and incompetent. She loves her baby, not for its behavior, not for its deserving, but because love is her nature, loving fiercely, like a raging river. Her love is not determined by the child's performance but by her own heart. Ask her if the child is good enough and she will answer, “No. She is perfect. Because she's mine.” There is no other reason, no variance.

You are a newborn child, fresh from God's birth waters. Your choices, though real, are immaterial to God's adoration. You can never be good enough, for there is no such thing. It is God's goodness, not yours, that guarantees your belovedness. Of course you are not deserving. You may protest, “But, God, I'm not all that good.” God will reply, “Oh, child, you're so much worse than you know. But I love you. You are my child, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” Get over being good enough, and your enemy being good enough. You are God's child, God's Beloved, with whom God is delighted.

Deep Blessings,

Pastor Steve Garnaas-Holmes

Freedom, grace, reconciliation, and joy are all promised to those who embrace forgiveness. Participants are encouraged to get a copy of the book, “Forgiveness” to read along with the DVD series. However, even without having a copy of the book, all are welcomed to join in all or any sessions as able.
