

Nominating Committee's Slate of Officers

A congregational meeting will be convened at 9:30am & 11 am Sunday, October 23 in worship and at 10:30am over Zoom for the purpose of electing the following persons to office and as members-at-large of the Nominating Committee:

Returning Elders

Anne Jacques
Lynae Young

Elders

Rob Necarsulmer
Meg Pope
Kathy Smedley
Patrice Stilley

Returning Deacons

Judy Bianchi
Joanne Ebert
Karen Finley
Jean Huddell
Jean Pitts
Paul Zamrowski

Deacons

Nancy Daly
Judy Eberhardt
Marty Ollenschleger
Scott Seymour

Returning Trustees

Scott Boorse
Steve Brown

Trustees

Jonathan Bonds
Robbe Healey, Class of 2024
Doug Pitts

Members-at-Large

Jen Boorse
Dana Loundas
Barb Necarsulmer
Ruth Simonson
Melanie Vicker

Anne Jacques

Returning Elder, Class of 2025

Anne has been a member of Westminster for 17 years. Anne and her husband, Tim, live in West Chester and have two adult children, Emily and James. Anne has served Westminster on the Outreach Committee as both Co-Chair and Committee member for more than 7 years. Anne is a Managing Director with Deloitte leading a Knowledge Management Team and enjoying the recent opportunity to work from home after many years traveling! Anne enjoys running, spinning (a Peloton devotee!), cycling, as well as camping and hiking.

Lynae Young

Returning Elder, Class of 2025

Lynae has been a member of Westminster for 20 years. Lynae and her husband Roy live in Glen Mills and have two sons, Kemper & Griffin. She has served Westminster as a Deacon and is currently an Elder. Lynae is also on the Personnel Committee. She co-chaired the Pastor Nominating Committee that brought us Pastor Leah. Lynae enjoys hiking with her dogs, playing tennis, and practicing yoga.

Rob Necarsulmer

Elder, Class of 2025

Rob has been a member of Westminster for 22 years. Rob and his wife Barb live in Kennett Square and have three adult children – Lindsay, Tim and Julie. He has served Westminster as a Trustee, Endowment Board member, usher and member of the Home Team. Rob is retired from his CFO position at Winterthur Museum. Rob enjoys traveling and volunteering at the West Chester Food Cupboard and other community organizations.

Meg Pope

Elder, Class of 2025

Meg and her husband, Brian, have been members of Westminster since 2016. They live in Pennsbury Township and have two grown sons, Nick (who lives with his wife Annie in New Orleans) and Matt (in San Diego). Meg has a heart for helping others, does so professionally at her individual and family therapy practice in Chadds Ford and as a board member of the Pennsylvania Society for Clinical Social Work. She enjoys cooking, walking, traveling, books, and the women's Bible study.

Kathy Smedley

Elder, Class of 2025

Kathy has been a member of Westminster for 13 years. Kathy and husband Larry live in West Chester and have five children and 13 grandchildren between them. She has served Westminster as an Elder, a member/chair of CSG, a teacher with KidsConnect, VBS Bible Story Station Leader, an usher, and a leader in the Women's Weekly Wednesday Bible Study. Kathy is a Master Level Certified Biblical Storyteller through the Academy for Biblical Storytelling. She has a deep passion for God's Word as well as a deep love for God's youngest children. When she's not at church you can find Kathy making a mess in her garden or with her watercolors.

Patrice Stilley

Elder, Class of 2025

Patrice has been a member of Westminster for 10 years. Originally from Denver, Patrice and husband David live in West Chester and have three children; Vivian (15), Eliza (12) and Gordie (8). The Stilley zoo is comprised of two dogs, a kitten, hermit crabs, and fish. Patrice has served Westminster as a member of Leah's pastor nominating committee. She has also been WPC's Childcare Coordinator and nursery volunteer, and been involved with VBS, children's ministries and Safe Harbor. Patrice is the Communications Administrator for Meals on Wheels of Chester County and enjoys reading, traveling, cooking and spending time at the beach with friends and family.

Judy Bianchi

Returning Deacon, Class of 2025

Judy Bianchi has been a member of Westminster for 21 years. Judy lives in Thorndale and has two collies (think Lassie) named Liza and Splash. She has served Westminster as a Deacon and a member of Worship & Arts. Judy is an engineering manager at Oracle Cerner company, and enjoys anything with her dogs, puzzles, cross-stitch and genealogy.

Joanne Ebert

Returning Deacon, Class of 2024

Joanne has been a member of Westminster for four years. Joanne and husband Rex live in Hershey's Mill and have two adult children, six grandchildren and one spoiled rescued Maltese, Stella. She serves Westminster as a Deacon, a Chancel Choir Member, Volunteer and Board Member at the Thrift Shop, and Deacon representative on the Nominating Committee.

Joanne is a retired RN at Johnson and Johnson and GlaxoSmithKline Pharmaceuticals, and enjoys singing, traveling and gardening.

Karen Finley

Returning Deacon, Class of 2024

Karen has been a member of Westminster for 48 years. Karen and husband, Paul, live in Kennett Square and have two adult children, Laura and Mark. She has served Westminster as a Deacon, Preschool Board member, VBS leader, Outreach committee member, sings in the Chancel Choir and attends several Bible studies and Tech Time.

Karen is a retired PN at the Chester County Hospital, and enjoys gardening, playing her clarinet and attending classes at the Y.

Jean Huddell

Returning Deacon, Class of 2025

Jean has been a member of Westminster for 37 years. She has four children and by the end of the year, all nine grandchildren will be baptized here. Jean is a retired Literature and Rhetoric instructor. She has sung with the choir for many years, currently serves with the deacons, and has served on various committees. She is an avid reader when her grandmotherly duties permit.

Jean Pitts

Returning Deacon, Class of 2025

Jean has been a member of Westminster for 21 years. Jean and her husband Doug live in Glen Mills and have two grown children and recently welcomed their first grandchild. She has served on the Interiors Committee, was a co-coordinator for Westminster's Family Promise Program from its inception and has participated in Rise Against Hunger. She currently serves as a Deacon and is very active in her Tuesday morning Bible Study Group. Jean enjoys walking with friends and her energetic dog, reading, cooking and now that her husband has retired, looks forward to traveling.

Paul Zamrowski

Returning Deacon, Class of 2025

Paul has been a member of Westminster for 20 years. Paul and his wife Susan live in West Chester and have two daughters, Julia and Kristina. He has served Westminster on the Nominating Committee, Dilworthtown start-up team, in the sound booth, a kitchen volunteer and youth chaperone. He has participated in Men's Fellowship, Dinner Group and Small Group Bible studies. Paul is a civil engineer and owns a Forensic Engineering Consulting company. He enjoys golf, dining, beer and live music.

Nancy Daly

Deacon, Class of 2025

Nancy has been a member of Westminster for three years. Nancy and her husband Robert live in West Chester and have two grown children, two grandchildren, two dogs, a cat, and koi fish. She has participated in the Women's retreat and various classes at Westminster. Nancy managed customer service areas, the systems and procedures department and was a lead systems analyst at Colonial Penn. In addition, she worked various part time retail jobs while her children were growing up. Nancy enjoys gardening, reading and needle crafts when she is not helping with her grandchildren or her mother.

Judy Eberhardt

Deacon, Class of 2025

Judy has been a member of Westminster for 53 years. She lives in Exton and has two grown children, Wendy and Steve, and four grandchildren. Over the years Judy has served as church school teacher, Deacon, Elder, member of Westminster Presbyterian Women, and Thrift Shop volunteer and Secretary of the Thrift Shop Board. Judy enjoys Westminster small groups, attending her grandchildren's school activities, and spending time at a home in the Poconos that she and her late husband, Jay, built when he retired.

Marty Ollenschleger

Deacon, Class of 2025

Marty is a retired Business Development Manager that served the manufacturing and process industries. He lives in the Chalfont section of Wilmington with his wife Bonnie. He and Bonnie have three children and three grandchildren. A veteran of the USAF, he has been active in Westminster in the Retired Men's Group, the Saturday Men's Fellowship and the Armed Services Small Group Ministry. He previously served as a Deacon and Deacon Moderator at Westminster and several other Presbyterian congregations. Hobbies include hiking with the Wilmington Trail Club and attending classes at Osher Lifelong Learning.

Scott Seymour

Deacon, Class of 2025

Scott has been a member of Westminster for 26 years. Scott is in sales and he and his wife Gail live in Downingtown. They enjoy traveling, walking on the beach, cooking, music, and spending time with family and friends.

Scott Boorse

Returning Trustee, Class of 2025

Scott has been a long-time attendee of Westminster and a member for more than 10 years. He has served Westminster as a trustee and member of the property committee for over five years. Scott and his wife Jennifer live in West Chester and have three daughters, Maddie, Rachel, and Becca. Scott is Director of Technical Programs and Industry Affairs for PEI with more than 30 years of relevant energy business experience. He is also a township supervisor for Birmingham Twp., PA. Scott enjoys softball and boating.

Steve Brown

Returning Trustee, Class of 2025

Steve Brown has been a member of Westminster for over five years. Steve and his wife Mary live in Downingtown and have two adult sons, and three grandchildren. He has served Westminster as a Trustee, a head usher, and a member of the Campus Use Task Force and most recently a member of the PNC. Steve is a retired hospital administrator and is still active in his professional organizations. He is involved in several local organizations including the Rotary Club of West Chester.

Jonathan Bonds

Trustee, Class of 2025

Jonathan has been a member of Westminster for 18 years. Jonathan and his wife Marty live near West Chester and have two daughters, Margaret and Virginia. He has served Westminster as an Elder participating in stewardship drives. Jonathan is a retired airline pilot and former USAF pilot and navigator. He enjoys volunteering at the West Chester YMCA and Chester County Special Olympics.

Robbe Healey

Trustee, Class of 2024

Robbe has been a member of Westminster for 11 years. She lives in West Chester and has one daughter Amelia and two grandchildren Maddie (7) and Xander (3). She serves Westminster as the president of the Endowment Fund Board, sits on the Stewardship Committee, and sings alto in the choir. She is a Founding Member of Aurora Philanthropic Consulting, LLC., providing strategic planning, board governance and fundraising consulting to non-profit organizations. She is an adjunct faculty member of the Villanova University MPA Program. In her free time, she enjoys gardening, Rotary Club of Greater West Chester Sunrise, and is a Board member and Secretary of the Housing Partnership of Chester County and serves with the "Natural Lands Force of Nature."

Doug Pitts

Trustee, Class of 2025

Doug has been a member of Westminster for 21 years. Doug and his wife Jean are empty nesters and live in Glen Mills having two grown children and a dog who helps keep them very active. Doug is recently retired after 41 years in finance concluding at Wilmington based Enovis Corporation and looks forward to contributing to Westminster as he is best able during his retirement. He enjoys socializing with friends, reading, running/walking, and would like to begin playing golf again.

Jen Boorse

Member-at-Large, Class of 2023

Jen has been a member of Westminster for 30 years and has served Westminster as a preschool board member, Sunday school teacher, Deacon, member of the Vision Team and a member of the Nominating Committee. She has also helped with VBS, other youth activities and Family Promise. Jen and her husband Scott live in West Chester and have three daughters, Madeline, Rachel, and Becca. Jen works part time for Birmingham Township.

She enjoys gardening, cooking, and spending time with her family.

Dana Loundas

Member-at-Large, Class of 2023

Dana has been a member of Westminster for 15 years. She is married to Craig and lives in West Chester. They have three sons, Patrick, Evan and Sergei. Dana has served Westminster as a Deacon, Parent Connect, youth group volunteer, Women's retreat committee, many different outreach efforts and as a ringer in the bell choir. Dana works for Ryan's Case for Smiles, a 501c3 that provides pillowcases to hospitalized children facing life changing illness or injury. Dana enjoys cycling, exercising, making homemade pasta and sewing.

Barb Necarsulmer

Member-at-Large, Class of 2023

Barb and her husband Rob have been members of Westminster for over 20 years. They have three adult children who grew up in the church: Lindsay who lives in PA, Julie in NC and Tim in OK. Barb has served two terms on Session and two as a Trustee. She also headed the Worship & Arts Committee, taught middle school Sunday school, serves as an usher and enjoys playing in the handbell choir and being part of a small group Bible study.

Ruth Simonson

Member-at-Large, Class of 2023

Ruth has been a member of Westminster since moving to this area over 25 years ago. Ruth and her husband Steve live in Kennett Square. She has served Westminster on Session, as chair of the Personnel Committee, and on the Planning Team, and has been excited to see this community of faith continuing to develop. She has been involved with ASG, Family Promise and Westminster's Home Team, as well as serving on the PNC that helped bring Leah Hrachovec into our midst. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, walking on the winding roads or in the beautiful preserves around Chester County.

Melanie Vicker

Member-at-Large, Class of 2023

Melanie has been a member of Westminster since she was two years old. Melanie and her husband Steve, live in West Chester and have two grown sons, two daughters in law and one granddaughter. She has served Westminster as a Deacon, Stephen Minister and on the Worship & Arts Committee. Melanie is a Customer Service Rep at Calista Tools and enjoys reading, music, knitting and spending time with her family.

Westminster Presbyterian Church

10 W. Pleasant Grove Rd. West Chester, PA 19382

610.399.3377 | westminsterpc.org